Arshya: Hi Crystal! I'm fine thank you! And you?

Crystal: I have a problem. Could you help me please?

Arshya: Of course yes! What can I do?

Crystal: My friend Eliza will arrive at the train station at 4:00 but I'll be in class at that time. Could you go to the station and welcome her please?

Arshya: No problem! What does she look like?

Crystal: She's short and thin. She has green eyes. She has long, straight, red hair.

Arshya: Ok, I'll go to the station at 4:00.

Crystal: Thank you very much, Arshya. That's very kind of you!
